WEDDING PHOTOGRAPHY · LITHUANIA & EUROPE

ABOUT MY WORK

Not only how it looked — but how it felt.

I approach wedding photography with a cinematic, editorial eye. Light, atmosphere, scale and genuine human connection matter to me — moments that remain timeless for decades.

Every wedding is a story of its own, deserving to be told with care, sensitivity and without rushing.

Photography to be cherished, not simply viewed.

HOW IT WORKS

From our first conversation to the story of your day.

I Our conversation

We get to know each other and discuss your day, your vision, the locations and what matters most to you. I answer your questions, and together we plan the flow of your photography.

II Your day

I let moments unfold naturally, offering gentle direction when needed so your photographs feel elegant and authentic. I help you feel at ease in front of the camera, guiding you on where to stand, where to look and how to move, so the experience feels natural and enjoyable.

III Delivery

I carefully select and edit every photograph. Your images are delivered in a private online gallery, ready to view, share and print.
